Groundbreaking NGO looking for more Communications interns to join our cool APCOM family. We are looking for 2 kinds of talents out there:

1. Communications interns, foremost good writers and/ or communications students
   Cf. Text and social media context, also for Newsletter proofreading.

Full Job Description

Are you looking for a really fun internship where you can do meaningful things that make a difference in a small company--and NOT have to go get someone’s coffee and count the hours? Internships are available at APCOM foundation, and we offer a rounded experience of how an international NGO operates. The role is varied and there is scope for adapting any particular interests to ensuring that this is a two-way learning experience.

https://www.apcom.org

Communications Internship

What Will You Do?

You will be an integral part of the Communications team at APCOM. Primarily focused on the initiatives of the Social Media team, you will help with daily operations, strategy, management, and the creation of new advertising campaigns. Additionally, you will write and proofread content pieces related to newsletters, press releases and assist in RRRAP conference/ HERO Awards 2020.

Info: https://www.heroawards.asia

You will also be responsible for the daily execution and optimization of digital media accounts. This role takes the strategy and vision of the directors and executive teams and helps to bring it to life in the day to day through helping to manage digital campaigns and content creations on social media.
2. Production interns

Full Job Description

For our Apcom studio in the office—but especially for the HERO Awards event—APCOM is looking for students who can manage film cameras and laptops, cf. film editing. Furthermore can assist/monitor on the technical side of the HERO Awards Gala event on 27 November; and possess audiovisual and technical skills.

Info: https://www.heroawards.asia

Duration:

- 3-4 months (start ASAP till end of December)

What Do You Need?

- A positive and open-minded attitude
- Innovative and refreshing ideas in aiding APCOM to implement new social media strategies
- Advanced/ intermediate understanding of English language and obtain writing skills
- Demonstrate an awareness of, and comfort with, increased social and professional responsibility in an international setting-working always with cultural sensitivity and respect.

Who Are We?

- We offer work experience, certificates, recommendation letters and initiative opportunities.
- We are a LGBTQI+ Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) representing and working with a network of individuals and community-based organisations across more than 30 countries in Asia and the Pacific.
- We primarily focus on HIV because it is a key health issue for gay men and other men who have sex with men in the region. As well as working towards improving relevant human and legal rights across the region as discrimination, stigma, criminalisation and exclusion impact on the health outcomes of the communities we serve.
- Growth-Focused is one of our core values, and we are dedicated to helping you grow with us through mentoring, initiatives and first-hand experiences.

We are an equal opportunity employer; and provide a welcoming and pleasant working environment with uplifting staff with diverse backgrounds and expertise.

How to apply:

Interested applicants should send a CV and Cover letter, outlining how their skills and experience match the requirements in the job description.

By email only to: JoinUs@apcom.org

Please note: applications through Facebook will not be considered