

KHAWAJA SIRA SOCIETY ADVOCATES FOR TRANS RIGHTS AT ERC CONFERENCE 2024 IN GERMANY

In a moment of immense pride, Ms. Mahnoor Chaudhary, the Director of Khawaja Sira Society recently addressed the Federal German Office during the Equal Rights Coalition (ERC) Conference held on 17th-18th Dec, 2024 in Berlin, Germany. The discussion spotlighted the critical issues of safeguarding the rights and dignity of trans and gender-diverse individuals on a global platform.

The Director brought attention to South Asia's best practices, particularly Pakistan's efforts, while shedding light on the persistent challenges faced by trans individuals in accessing essential services such as healthcare, education, and employment. The dialogue emphasized the urgent need for collaboration among policymakers, lawmakers, and civil society organizations to advance the rights and inclusion of trans and gender-diverse communities.

MEXICO & GERMANY
CO-CHAIRS 2022-2024

Key Points of Commitment

- Inclusion of Pakistan as a Member State: Strengthening global representation of trans and gender-diverse individuals.
- Advocacy for Inclusive Policies: Promoting laws that protect and respect the rights of trans communities worldwide.
- Resource Mobilization: Providing resources and support for trans and gender-diverse communities to empower their voices.

Speaking to state officials, lawmakers, international organizations, and civil society, the Director urged collective action to ensure trans individuals live with dignity and respect. The ERC Conference, with 45 member states, unites human rights defenders and policymakers to create inclusive public policies. Khawaja Sira Society reaffirmed its commitment to advancing trans rights through collaboration, advocacy, and support. Together, we aim for a world embracing inclusion, diversity, and equality for all.
